

The Pines Wedding Day Content Creator Giveaway

One lucky couple will win Wedding Day Content Creation with Angel, our in-house Marketing Coordinator and content expert at The Pines.

This experience is designed for couples who want real, candid, behind-the-scenes moments captured and delivered within days... not months. From getting ready to the dance floor, Angel will document your day in a natural, social-first style — creating content that's ready to relive and share almost instantly.

As The Pines' content expert, Angel knows exactly where to be, when to capture, and how to shoot each space to its fullest potential — from the best lighting moments to the most flattering angles across both Pines Black and Pines White. Every clip is intentional, authentic, and designed to reflect the energy of your day.

The giveaway includes up to 10 hours of coverage, all raw footage delivered within 24 hours, and 10–15 professionally edited videos delivered within 72 hours, optimized for Instagram and TikTok.

It's the perfect complement to your photographer and videographer — capturing the in-between moments, the emotion, and the energy of your day that might otherwise go unseen.
